U.S. FIGHTERS DOWN TWO CHINESE PLANES

Boy Nurses Bruised Jaw After Bear In Orchard Slaps Him

EAST LIVERPOOL — Jay Rambo, 13-year-old Calcutta boy, has three large welts on his face and a swollen jaw to attest to an encounter with a "6-foot tall black bear" in an apple orchard near his home Saturday night.

The incident has the neighborhood aroused to the point of organizing an armed hunt for the animal which reportedly was seen on other occasions last week.

The victim, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Rambo of Hoppel's Corners, said he stepped on the bear's paw as it lay in the dense orchard. The bear growled, Jay said, rose on its hind legs and slapped him on the face.

He and a neighbor boy, Joe Dick, 15, were on their way to a neighbor's house to get help after Jay, at home alone, heard the dogs barking and saw the animal in the back yard. Armed with 22 rifles they cut through the orchard but met up with the bear before reaching their destination.

Dick's father, Joe, shot at what he said was a large, lumbering animal last Wednesday night before it fled into the Rambo orchard.

Mrs. Rambo said mothers in the vicinity are afraid to let children play outside.

Harold Thompson, a Calcutta farmer, reported he saw a bear in the area some time ago.

Stevenson Raps Indochina Truce

Says GOP Foreign Policy Has Failed

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP)—Adlai Stevenson, breaking a five-day silence on the Indochina peace settlement signed in Geneva last week, yesterday charged that right-wing Republicans have "successfully identified negotiation with appeasement."

In his first and only major speech on an Alaska vacation, the unsuccessful Democratic standard bearer in the 1952 presidential campaign said of the Indochina settlement:

Raps GOP Policy

"This is the sorry sequel of all the foolish, boastful Republican talk about liberation of the enslaved nations, about unleashing Chiang-Kai-shek, seizing the initiative, a new look on foreign policy, no more little wars as in Korea, and, finally, that threatening talk by the secretary of state and the vice president about massive atomic retaliation which scared our Allies half to death, if not our enemies.

"All these bold words and ringing slogans of the past two years sound a little hollow now. The 'new look' collapsed at the first test. The administration was not prepared to fight, nor could it negotiate, because the right-wing Republicans have successfully identified negotiation with appeasement.

Hits Foreign Policy

"Unable to fight, unable to negotiate, unable even to speak with a coherent tongue, U.S. foreign policy defaulted and France salvaged what she could out of the endless, weary war in Indochina."

Not only did the Communists add valuable and strategic area to their domain, Stevenson said, but they threw the Western Allies "into confusion and dissension. Russia's greatest goal and dearest dream."

The former governor of Illinois said the Indochina settlement, which calls for the partition of Viet Nam into Communist and pro-Western halves, ended the shooting but Communist China "has staked out another menacing salient into free Asia and enveloped 13 million people."

GRASS FIRES REPORTED

Two grass fires were halted by firemen over the weekend. One occurred at 11:40 a. m. Saturday on the Damascus Road and the other at 1:52 p. m. Sunday at 395 S. Ellisworth Ave.

Red Chinese Admit Shooting Down Airliner, Apologize To Great Britain

TOKYO (AP) — Communist China apologized to Britain today for shooting down a British airliner over the south China Sea Friday with an apparent loss of 10 lives, including three Americans.

A Peiping radio broadcast heard here said Red patrol planes thought the transport was Chinese Nationalist. It expressed a willingness to consider paying damages.

The apology — virtually unprecedented since the Red regime took over the Chinese mainland — was in a note to British Charge d'Affaires Humphrey Trevelyan from Chang Han-fun, Red Chinese vice minister for foreign affairs.

The conciliatory note, a reply to a British protest, seemed to tie in with Peiping's current line of propaganda aimed at getting a United Nations seat at the expense of the Nationalists, by wooing Britain and France and denouncing the United States.

Later in the same broadcast, the Red radio told of recently shooting down a "U.S.-made Kuomintang (Nationalist) plane over Chekiang province."

Will Shoot Down Others

"If the U.S. imperialists order the Chiang brigands to send any more planes in provocative action against us we will shoot them down as we have done before," it added.

Text of the note, broadcast by Peiping, said shooting down of the Cathay Pacific Airlines Skymaster over Hainan Island was "entirely accidental" and an "unfortunate incident."

"They shot us down with the intention of killing us," Capt. Philip Brown, pilot of the airliner, told newsmen in Hong Kong.

Britain protested the shooting Saturday night and U.S. Secretary charged the airliner was "deliberately shot down." Two American aircraft carriers, the Hornet and the Philippine Sea, were ordered to the scene to protect the continuing search for the nine missing persons. Eight survivors were rescued.

The Dulles protest plus the movement of the carriers into Chinese waters was regarded in Washington as a show of strength to impress upon the Reds the gravity of the situation.

The Peiping broadcast said the Red Chinese government "expresses its regret at this accidental and unfortunate incident of the British transport aircraft and has taken appropriate measures in dealing with it."

"It extends its sympathy, concern and condolences to the dead and injured in this incident and to their relatives. It is willing to give consideration to the payment of appropriate benefit and compensation for the loss of life and property damage involved."

Denounce Nationalists

The broadcast denounced Nationalist China and said Red fighters identified the British transport as "an aircraft of the Chiang Kai-shek gang."

"While carrying out patrol duty over Port Yulin of Hainan Island," the broadcast said, the fighters

Four Injured In Highway Wrecks Sunday

Four persons were injured and two were arrested as a result of traffic accidents on highways near Salem Sunday, state highway patrolmen report.

Of the three accidents occurring, two of them involved cars being rammed from the rear while stopped at traffic signals.

An auto driven by Leymogne Atwood, 41, of Martins Ferry, was hit from behind at 7:55 p. m. yesterday by a vehicle driven by Raymond Casper, 17, of Pittsburgh. According to patrolmen, Atwood was halted at a red light on Route 45 near Salem when the accident happened. Casper was cited for failure to stop in the assured clear distance.

A collision involving three autos occurred at the intersection of Routes 422 and 616 at 1:10 a. m. yesterday when an auto driven by Harry Eckles, 35, of New Castle, Pa., ran into the rear end of a car driven by Lamar Witherstein, 33, of Youngstown, pushing it into a third vehicle driven by Joseph Ruppel, 41, of Struthers.

According to patrolmen, both the Ruppel and Witherstein autos were stopped at a traffic signal.

Fight To Continue On Atomic Bill

Ike Says Filibuster Musn't Halt Passage

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate today beat down a determined effort by Republican leaders to cut short debate on the atomic energy bill.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.) said after a White House conference today "there will be no surrender" in efforts to pass atomic energy legislation, even if it means extending the congressional session several weeks.

He said President Eisenhower and congressional leaders agreed that a Senate filibuster must not be permitted to block action on the administration's legislative program "even if it requires that Congress continue in session several additional weeks."

Both Knowland and the White House have described as a filibuster the 10-day debate—including an 86-hour almost continuous session last week on the atomic bill in the Senate.

The California senator talked with newsmen after he and other GOP leaders met with Eisenhower at the regular Monday morning session on lawmaking problems.

Congressional leaders have been striving for adjournment by next Saturday.

Knowland said the atomic energy bill under no circumstances will be put aside until the Senate has had an opportunity to vote on it.

He said also that the Senate will be kept "in continuous session" until the bill and its amendments have been voted upon.

"We are not going to permit an overwhelming majority of the Senate to be deprived of its right to vote by a willful minority who, by their clear obstructionist tactics, are attempting to block the orderly legislative process," he said.

Knowland said that when action on the atomic energy bill has been completed the Senate will then turn to action on legislation dealing with foreign aid, farm problems and Social Security.

Ike, Defense Heads Convene Before Talks With Rhee Open

WASHINGTON (AP) — A White House gathering of military advisers in advance of a visit from Syngman Rhee today heralded a series of conferences expected to have an important bearing on U.S. policy in the Communist-troubled Far East.

Rhee, President of South Korea, was due in Washington late today. He begins talks with President Eisenhower and other U.S. officials tomorrow.

Several hours ahead of Rhee's arrival, Eisenhower summoned to a luncheon meeting Secretary of Defense Wilson and Adm. Arthur Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff. Also invited was retired Gen. James A. Van Fleet, recently returned from a survey of military assistance needs in the Far East.

The meeting followed closely announcement of tentative plans for a conference in August or September of Western and Asian nations on formation of a Southeast Asia defensive alliance.

From the views of the three advisers the President can assemble the individual strategic and supply requirement problems of Japan, Korea, Formosa and the Philippines and start patterning them to those foreseen for the nations on the southeastern flank of Asia if a defensive alliance should be obtained.

Rhee is likely to ask, according to Seoul dispatches, for military equipment and transport to equip at least 10 and perhaps 20 more divisions than the 20 South Korea already has. He also is expected to seek a boost in the rate of U.S. economic aid, now running at 200 million dollars a year.

Eisenhower in turn is reported planning to ask the fiery nationalist to forget, at least for the time being, his dream of Korean unification, and also to soften his attitude toward his old enemy Japan.

The new and strategically valuable position of the Reds in North Indochina imposes a critical factor in defense planning but of-

Firemen said the blaze was under control but that no one had learned what touched off the blast.

When the flames roared up police and firemen evacuated neighboring houses.

Each of the five tanks at the station had a capacity of 15,000 gallons of gasoline or fuel oil.

The force of the blast knocked many persons out of bed in homes nearby.

Oiling Of Streets Will End On July 31

The oiling of alleys and streets for property owners will be discontinued after July 31, Mayor Dean B. Cranmer announced.

The mayor advised persons who desire this service to contact either the service director, the city garage or the mayor's office before the deadline.

The city grades and spreads the oil, with the property owner being charged for the cost of the oil only.

Step Up Propaganda As the day of evacuation approached, both sides stepped up their propaganda battle for more than a million Roman Catholics living in the North. There were claims and denials that Red sympathizers already are persecuting Catholics in Red River delta recently abandoned to the rebels.

The Vietnamese hope to persuade Catholics in the delta to migrate south, where they presumably would furnish a solid bloc of votes in future elections provided by the cease-fire.

Evacuation of the Hanoi area must be completed within 80 days after the July 27 cease-fire, Military units can remain in Haiphong up to 300 days.

The cease-fire will be supervised by a three-nation commission — Indian, Communist Poland and Canada. India has accepted chairmanship of the commission. Peiping radio announced last night Poland also had agreed to serve on the group.

Carrier Planes Attacked On Rescue Duty

Were Hunting Lost Passengers From Downed British Craft

WASHINGTON (AP)—The State Department reported today two U.S. carrier planes shot down two Chinese Communist planes which attacked them while the Americans were searching for survivors of a British airliner.

A department announcement said there were no casualties on the American side, and emphasized that the Red planes made their attack "over the high seas."

It said: "The United States plan to protest most vigorously 'against this further evidence of Chinese Communist brutality and their belligerent interference with a humanitarian rescue operation being conducted over the high seas.'"

From 2 Carriers

The American fighters were from the two United States aircraft carriers ordered into the area Saturday to "protect further rescue and search operations" launched after Chinese Communist fighters shot down a British Cathay Pacific airliner on a flight from Bangkok to Hong Kong.

The Communist Radio announced today that the Peiping government was apologizing to Britain for the attack on the airliner. It said the Red pilots thought the plane was Chinese Nationalist.

Ten persons, including three Americans, apparently lost their lives after the airliner crashed into the sea. Latest reports indicate eight survived.

Text Of Note

Following is the text of the State Department announcement made in the name of Secretary Dulles and read to a news conference by Press Officer Henry Sydam:

"As I announced on Saturday, July 24, the secretary of defense has ordered two United States aircraft carriers to proceed to the scene of the Chinese Communist assault upon the British commercial airliner which resulted in the death of three Americans and the wounding of three others.

"The mission as stated then of these ships and their planes was to conduct and protect further rescue and search operations in the vicinity of the tragedy.

Attacked By Chinese

"This government is now informed that two United States carrier-based planes of the rescue type, while conducting their missions of mercy and seeking possible survivors, were attacked over the high seas by two Chinese Communist fighter aircraft, apparently of the same type as shot down the Cathay Pacific commercial airliner.

"The United States planes returned the fire and the two Chinese Communist planes were shot down. There were no casualties on the United States side.

"The United States plans to protest most vigorously against this further evidence of Chinese Communist brutality and their belligerent interference with a humanitarian rescue operation being conducted over the high seas."

The announcement did not identify the area of the shooting. But the British airliner was shot down some 30 miles south of the Red-ruled island of Hainan.

Over the weekend, top American officials had made it known they would demand stiff compensation for the three Americans lost: Leonard Lee Parish, of Iowa Park, Tex., and his two sons Lawrence, 4, and Philip, 2.

Leetonia to License Amusement Devices To Get Needed Funds

LEETONIA — Village Council has decided to submit a 2-mill operating levy to the voters Nov. 2 to raise additional funds to meet rising costs.

In addition, Council at its recent meeting authorized solicitor Lodge to prepare an amusement ordinance to license all types of pin-ball machines. Operators would pay $100 a month and places displaying the devices would pay $10 per machine per year.

Mayor Paul Sevenich pointed out the necessity of raising additional money since current bills could not be paid.

Mayor Sevenich reported that the owners of the Crescent Machine plant have not paid any personal property tax and that the building is being used as a warehouse. The solicitor was instructed to investigate.

Council passed a resolution declaring the necessity of installing sewers on Cherry Fork Ave.

Mayor Sevenich appointed Dale McCormick as chairman of the Park Board to replace Walter Adams who has moved from the village. Bill Navojosky was also named as an additional member. The Mayor appointed a "zoning board" committee to go over the proposed zoning ordinance and set boundaries. Members of the board are Paul Casey, Elby Morris and Frank Citino.

Council employed Charles McCabe to survey Cherry Fork Ave., in preparation for sewer work which is proposed for that street.

Fire Chief Eldon Holt was present to ask Council for additional room to house fire equipment. The mayor asked the chief to submit a written plan so that Council could determine how much it would cost.

Solicitor Lodge read the changes in the "Berg Bretzel sewer agreement" and announced the agreement is now ready for signing by the Board of Public Affairs.

Council authorized the Mayor to send a letter to every property owner on the unpaved streets in Leetonia, explaining the cost of the best type of paving, as well as the cheapest type. The Canton Tar and Asphalt Co. has submitted the lowest price to date.

Red Guerrillas Kill 2 Britons, Wound 3

SINGAPORE (P)—Ambushed by Communist guerrillas as they toured a palm oil estate in Johore state, two Britons were killed and three were wounded yesterday. The wounded included Christopher Shawcross, brother of former British Atty. Gen. Sir Hartley Shawcross.

Those killed were W. A. Gibson, 56, manager of the estate, and P. Gregoire, 39, an official of the Colonial and Federal Building Society.

The guerrillas opened fire as the Britons drove along a road 25 miles from Singapore. Police fire finally drove off the Reds.

1,000 Die In Floods

NEW DELHI, India (P)—Reports from the India-Tibet border say more than 1,000 persons died in the floods which swept the Tibetan trade center of Gyantse last week.

One report from Kalimpong, the north Indian trade center linked to Gyantse by a Himalayan road, said the death toll may reach 1,800 in the south Tibetan town of 25,000 inhabitants.

Information received here indicated the swollen Namchung River, which flooded Gyantse, now is subsiding.

170 County 4-H Club Boys, Girls To Attend Annual Camp

Camp Whitewood, a camp carved out of former Iroquois Indian country in southwest Ashtabula County, will be the destination of about 170 Columbiana County 4-H boys and girls Thursday.

About 130 junior 4-H members, age 10-13, are registered to attend the younger camp Thursday through Aug. 2. When they leave, about 40 senior club members will take over the camp for five days.

Miss Jean Stille, home demonstration agent, said the seniors will share the scenic camp with boys and girls from Mahoning, Lake and Portage Counties, but the Columbiana County juniors will have the run of the camp.

Crafts instruction, nature hiking, campfire periods and vespers are included in the program.

Some of the older 4-H members will be counselors for the younger group. From Columbiana County will be John Putnam of Wellsville, Eileen Yost of Calcutta, Patty Lease, Joann Shaw, Kathy Siers, Marcia McClintock and Eva

Historical Group Holds 1st Tour

65 Tour Spots Of Interest In Village

COLUMBIANA — Members of the Historical Society of Columbiana and Fairfield Township made their first tour yesterday afternoon of points of historical interest in Columbiana and vicinity.

Sixty-five persons including visitors from Salem and Youngstown made the tour in 25 cars.

As a memento of early times, the chief point of interest was the boulder at the roadside park on Route 7, two miles southwest of town, indicating the site of the first session of Columbiana County Common Pleas Court and that of the earliest sessions of the state Supreme Court. They convened in the barn, histories say, on the farm of Matthias Lower, which embraced what is now the roadside park.

The Columbiana County Bar Association placed the court memorial at the roadside with its bronze plaque on the 10 feet high boulder, which reads:

"The Supreme Court of the State of Ohio held one of its first sessions in the house of Matthias Lower, the temporary seat of justice for Columbiana County, at this site on the 14th day of June, 1803, Samuel Huntington and William Spriggs presided as judges of said court.

"This stone was placed by the State Highway Department under the auspices of the Columbiana County Bar Association, in October, 1939."

At the dedication, Chief Justice Carl V. Weygant of the Ohio supreme court was the principal speaker. Other members of the court present were Justices William L. Hart and Charles B. Zimmerman, Attorneys Walter B. Hill of East Liverpool and W. O. Wallace of Columbiana were the Bar association committee in charge of arrangements. The 20-ton boulder was moved to its present site from another location on the farm.

Blackened by the weather, the bronze plaque on the boulder had been burned up for the occasion by members of the society.

OTHER SPOTS visited before the tour ended at the Harvey S. Firestone homestead were the site on N. Vine St. of the spring used by Joshua Dixon, who laid out Columbiana as a town in 1805, and the site of the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Hanna, now part of Firestone Park, whose son, Leonard, born there and later a resident of Lisbon, was the father of Marcus A. Hanna, U. S. Senator from Ohio before and after the turn of the century.

Ronald Zellers, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Zellers, 304 E. Railroad St., who will enter pre-ministerial school at Duke University, Durham, N.C., Sept. 16, as a student for the Methodist ministry, attended last week "Camp Farthest Out" at Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware. Dr. Glenn Clark, founder of the camp, affiliated with worldwide religious organization, and Dr. Frank Laubach, world missionary, are among the notable leaders for the eighth season of the camp. Mrs. A. R. Brown, 14 S. Cross St., Columbiana, is camp secretary this year.

COLUMBIANA and Mahoning County Guernsey Breeders' association will have its annual picnic dinner at noon next Thursday, July 29, in Pavilion 3, Firestone Park. Elmer Reihl, RD. Canfield, is president of the association.

The Methodist Church picnic is scheduled for 6:30 p.m. Wednesday in Pavilion 2, Firestone Park, under the direction of the W.S.C.S. All members and friends are invited, families to take covered dish and table service. Lemonade, coffee, butter and rolls will be provided.

Rev. Ralph Goldhardt, missionary at home on furlough from New Guinea, will speak at the parish picnic of Jerusalem Lutheran Church, Columbiana, and Zion Lutheran Church, New Waterford, in Pavilion 4, Firestone Park, Wednesday. Games for children at 4 p.m. will be followed by the picnic dinner at 6:30, families to take

The Deborah Circle of Grace Evangelical and Reformed Church will meet at the home of Mrs. Wilford Ferrall, Seventh St., at 8 p.m. tomorrow.

The Men's Bible class of Grace Evangelical and Reformed Church will have a corn roast at Candel's cabin, east of town on Route 7, at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday.

Ladies' night observance by Fairfield Ruritan Club at Heck's last Thursday evening was attended by 85. C. W. Peters, of Minerva, humorist and philosopher, gave an entertaining talk, and there was music by Mt. Nebo Grange string band and group singing. W. A. Morris presided. The next meeting of the club will be at Heck's Thursday evening, August 19, with the program in charge of the education committee, Superintendent T. V. Utterback of Fairfield School, chairman.

Centennial Park Scene Of Many Events

Weekdays are busy at Centennial Park but schedules for past Sundays and for Sundays reaching into fall indicate a "full house," according to Park Custodian Fred Smith.

Sunday gatherings tax the facilities at the park to the utmost. Mr. Smith declared with the two closed and two open pavilions and the numerous tables reserved. Patronage of the swimming pool has been excellent despite the cool weather, the park officials said.

Mr. Smith reminds the public that people in the Salem district have a priority in placing reservations for outings in the first three months of the year and after that reservations are open to anyone as they are available.

Reservations may be made by calling Mr. Smith at 9229 and he suggests calling well in advance of the date wanted.

Scheduled for Friday at the park were three meetings, the Columbiana-Mahoning County Hampshire Association; Goshen Defense Group and Red Cross dinner for swimming pool employees.

Sunday's schedule lists the following meetings: the Swope reunion; Church of God picnic; Borton family; Welsh and Johns groups; Just-a-Mere Club; Sloan, M. Trimble and Howard McGaffick groups.

Salem Business and Professional Women have a picnic at the park tonight. Tuesday the Trimble club will have a picnic and the Lions Club, a swimming party.

Damascus Magazine Club; Daughters of Emmanuel of the Emmanuel Lutheran Church and the American Laundry employees will meet at the park Wednesday, and the Baptist Church and Sunday School will have a picnic there on Thursday.

The West Side Community Club will have a picnic supper at the park Thursday and so will the Goshen Harmony Club, Justice and Eugene Flint groups have reserved spaces for Friday and Weingarts for Saturday.

August promises to be a busy month and is illustrative of the marked increase in park activities in the past seven years. Scheduled for Sunday, Aug. 1 are picnics for the Chappell, Albright and Sisk families; Goshen High School class of 1943 and Lentz and Circle groups.

Man, Woman Lose Each Other In Mountains

CUMBERLAND, Md. (P)—Police received a report yesterday that an elderly man had walked out of the woods on Wills Mountain and said his wife had become lost while berry picking.

Desk Sgt. Charles C. Roby began organizing a search. Soon another call came in. The caller said an elderly woman had just reported her husband missing on Wills Mountain.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McMullen, both in this 70s, were reunited at the police station after police cruisers were sent to pick them up.

Woman Drowns Self At Spot Husband Died

NEWPORT, Ky. (P)—Mrs. Joan Baird, 29, whose husband accidentally drowned when a motorboat overturned in the Ohio River last April, threw herself into the river at approximately the same spot last night and was presumed drowned.

She jumped from the second deck of the Harrison boat harbor, Dayton, Ky., the operator of the said.

Friends said Mrs. Baird, whose last known address was in Newport, had threatened suicide several times.

It's the Hit that's writing New History

TAKE a look, if you please, at the car and the styling that are changing historic sales standings.

Take a look at the beauty and the buy called Buick—the car that is forging ahead to new sales heights in the 1954 market.

Take a look at the new best seller that has moved into the "Big Three" of the nation's top sales leaders—into that very exclusive circle that for two decades has held only the so-called "low-price three."

For today, as national sales figures for the first five months reveal, Buick is outselling all other cars except two of these "low-price three." And each month firms Buick's new position.

It takes solid worth to bring this about—a lot more automobile per dollar in Buick than in other cars.

But it also takes the glamorous new tomorrow styling that is Buick today. It takes the highest V8 horsepower, Series for Series, in all Buick history. It takes the room and comfort and ride and handling that are Buick's proud tradition.

And it takes a range of cars to satisfy a wide range of people—with prices that most people can well afford. So you find the low-priced SPECIAL, the high-powered CENTURY, the extra-spacious SUPER, and the custom-built ROADMASTER—the four big reasons for Buick's tremendous sales success.

Come in for a demonstration and you'll see what we mean.

With the years-away styling of this glamor car, you'll be way ahead at resale time. And right now you're money ahead with the big trade-in allowance our volume sales can bring you. Drop in this week.

Cream Of The Crop

There isn't a business enterprise in the United States that wouldn't jump at a chance to hire a young man capable of becoming its president in 20 years. More than ever before, it is realized that the continuity of American enterprise depends on the quality of new personnel.

Surveys show that more employers each year have been taking advantage of a ready-made selectivity system based on higher education. Employers now scour college campuses for senior students with aptitudes and training that will make them valuable as employees and sign them up in advance. This recruiting has been practiced so intensively in colleges giving specialized training in engineering and accounting that a graduate without a job connection starts his job hunt with the knowledge that he already has been passed over by the principal "ivory hunters" of the enterprise system. One of the largest employers of college graduates with special training in the sciences signs up three fourths of its college trained people before they leave the campus.

The practice has great significance. There always is room at the top for people who are able to get there. Education has become a major factor in competition for preferential treatment; the correlation between education and enterprise is not imaginary but tangible.

Without an educational system capable of turning out alert and informed people the American goal of an ever-higher standard of living would be unattainable.

Drawing The Line

With the difference that the line in Indochina has been drawn at the 17th parallel and was drawn at the 38th in Korea, the situation is the same.

The military power of Red China, backed by military supplies from Russia, has been stabilized at an ideological frontier. This drawing of lines is one of the oldest practices in a world whose people always have been split up by the claims and counter-claims of their defenders and conquerors. Compromise is the aim of diplomacy.

It irritates absolutists, who believe everything can be forced to a showdown by violence; they are irritated about Indochina, and they were irritated about Korea. The United States and its allies compromised with the Red Chinese and North Koreans when both sides grew tired of bleeding and dying in a war neither side could win without greater sacrifices than it was willing to make. France and its allies have now made a deal with the Viet Minh and the Red Chinese in Indochina.

The deal has been approved by the United States, which will take a leading part in setting up a security system in southeastern Asia to protect Thailand, Burma, the Philippines, British Malaya and Indonesia. These vital countries are inside the "freedom line" and will not be surrendered. So are Cambodia, Laos and a sizeable part of Viet Nam. The two most vital peninsulas on the Asiatic coast have been barred to the Communists.

Along with evidence that the Communist conspiracy is gobbling the world, there is evidence that the drawing of "freedom lines" is isolating the conspirators far more successfully than anyone would have believed it could be done a few years ago.

Phun Is Phun Bhut . . .

Part of the task that confronts Americans keeping track of the new from all over is pronunciation of words from Indochina. If it weren't for the brave souls who must tackle the word's on broadcasts and telecasts, the news from Indochina would not have been discussed.

Without the slightest knowledge of the proper pronunciation of any of the words in the following list — and all of them have been spelled that way because it was as close as some English-speaking person could come to their phonetic sound in the native tongue — these are a few tongue twisters that have come out of Indochina in the last few weeks.

Nguyen Van Hinh, Ngo Dinh Diem, Poe Thoun, Tep Phan, In Cheun, Tiou Long, Ta Quang Buu, Nhiek Tiouleng, Tran Van Do, Norodom Sihanouk, Sim Vir and Hoa Hao.

Then of course there were Dienbienphu and the Phuly-Ninhbinh-Thaibinh Triangle.

While these may be no more puzzling to an American ear than the sound of hundreds of English words would be to any Indochinese, the fact remains that it is hard for Americans to keep track of things they can't pronounce. This has been a sore spot in newspaper business ever since the first Yankee clipper ships made contact with the Orient.

The trouble always has been with phonetic spellings in English of words from other languages. Take that Phuly-Ninhbinh-Thaibinh Triangle, for instance. Anyone want to bet that could not have been spelled Fooie-Ninbin-Thaybin? At least that would have looked like something pronounceable in English — and that's the whole idea of phonetic spelling.

Budget Mystery

By RAYMOND MOLEY

Byrd, Humphrey Differ On Hiking Debt Limit

When two intelligent and conservative men like Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey and Sen. Byrd differ fundamentally about a matter of financial policy, it is not strange that the layman is confused about what is happening to his tax dollars. Incidentally, both of these gentlemen have the confidence and admiration of the President for both were offered the job of treasury secretary.

A year ago the secretary asked that the debt limit of 275 billion dollars be raised. The senator objected and Congress sustained him. Time proved the senator to be right. Now again the secretary asks that the limit be raised, to 290 billion dollars and the senator objects once more.

He points out that the Treasury, on June 30, finished the year with an overhanging debt of 270.8 billion dollars which leaves the secretary more than four billions of space under the present ceiling. The predicted deficit for the current fiscal year is 2.9 billion dollars.

It would seem to the observer that Byrd is right again. Still it is hard to accuse the secretary either of ignorance or of an itch for profligate spending. The difference in viewpoint is in the whole June 30, 1955 the sum would be 56.3 billion dollars. But there are 86.9 billion in unexpended appropriations carried over from previous sessions of Congress. This Byrd points out, means that there is hanging over the Treasury a potential, perhaps theoretical, expenditure of 143.2 billion.

The Treasury must, through the information it gets from the various departments, anticipate pretty well how much of current appropriations will be spent and how much of the previous year's appropriations will be spent. The guess, and it is little more than a guess, is that out of the appropriations for the present year 36.4 billion will be spent before July, 1955 and 29.2 billion of previous years' appropriations.

"The fact is," Byrd points out, "that about 50 per cent of this year's expenditures do not appear in current appropriation bills. When we reduce an appropriation bill on the floor of the Senate, we do not know whether we are reducing the expenditures for this year, or next year or two or three years in advance. . . . Beyond this, more than 35 of appropriations on which Congress is acting this year are not for expenditures for the current year."

Moreover, the layman may not realize the difference between authorizations and appropriations.

In the present year, the administration as well as Congress has been pretty profligate in recommending and passing authorizations which will morally obligate Congress in future years to make appropriations.

The facts are not all before us yet, but it may well be that this administration, which was pledged to economy, will ultimately be a most expensive luxury.

Byrd proposes several remedies for this defective system of governmental finance. One would be to provide for a single appropriation bill so that members of both houses would be able to make comparative evaluations of the items they are appropriating.

A resolution to require this has been sponsored by Byrd and has passed the Senate three times. It Another recommendation would permit the president to veto specific items in the appropriation bills. This might require a constitutional amendment or possibly only a simple act of Congress. This proposal has likewise been introduced and is pending in the Judiciary Committee.

For the present, the issue is whether Congress will raise the debt limit as the treasury secretary has requested. With Byrd in opposition and the figures seeming to support him, and an election in the offing, it is not likely that such a measure will pass.

Ike's Highway Program

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower's proposed 50-billion-dollar highway program for the next 10 years, huge as it seems, would be only part of the money spent on roads in that time. The total would be over 87 billion.

The 50 billion wouldn't all come out of the U.S. Treasury. Only about half of it would. The states would have to put up the rest. But the proposal as only a gleam in Eisenhower's eye.

It was a suggestion he tossed to the governors at their recent annual meeting in New York State to get thinking started on this guessing at what such a program would cost.

Sometime next year he may be able to offer Congress a specific program after the government's Bureau of Public Roads finishes an estimate, perhaps by February, on what it would cost to build needed new roads and improve existing ones.

The government helps states now under what is called a federal aid system, begun in 1916. The money given by the government must be matched by the states, generally on a 50-50 basis.

Any money used under this aid system, federal and state, must go only into construction of new roads and improvement of old ones. Then the states must maintain them. The federal government has to give its approval when any of its money is used.

Any additional road building or repairing — that is, on roads outside the aid system — must come out of the pockets of the states, counties, cities and towns.

This year the government is giving the states 575 million dollars. For each of the next two years it will give 875 millions. The Bureau of Public Roads estimates the federal government, the states, the counties and local communities will spend altogether around 6 1/2 billion dollars a year. That's for construction, maintenance, administration and retirement of debt.

Of that 6 1/2 billion, $3,730,000,000 will be spent on construction alone — new roads, improving existing ones — by the federal government, states, counties and local communities. That would be, if costs $3,730,000,000, over the next 10 didn't go higher than they are now, years.

What Eisenhower suggests is to take the $37,000,000,000, or a that 50 billion dollars be spent over those same 10 years in addition to $87,300,000,000 in the next decade for construction.

In this country there are about 34 million miles of roads and streets. Of this total, 28,000 miles are local city streets and 2,962,000 miles are rural roads. A rural road is anything outside the jurisdiction of a city.

Evaluating Foundations

By GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY

It is not generally discussed but one of the reasons for the proliferation of foundations is the tax structure of our country. Many businesses, whose development cost blood, sweat and tears — to use a phrase — would have to go out of existence or be reduced by the sale of valuable properties, to meet inheritance tax. To protect the continuity of the property, it is advantageous to give it to a foundation, the heirs working for a salary. They would not be better off if they continued to own the otherwise dissipated property.

Also, when a man has worked hard, used his skill and ingenuity to a maximum, accumulated a property which he cannot hand over to his heirs, he sets up a foundation during his life-time and uses his surplus for what he believes are good works. The names Rockefeller, Carnegie, and Ford come to mind. These were set up by men who are now dead.

The Sloan-Kettering Foundation, which is doing so much in cancer research, has been set up by men who are alive.

ALTOGETHER there are between 6,999 and 7,000 foundations in the United States, of varying dimensions, with capital resources of 7.5 billion dollars and with annual grants amounting to at least 30 billion dollars to a number of causes. The reason the figures are estimates is that all the facts about foundations are now known.

Two committees of Congress started investigations into the nature and operations of foundations with unsatisfactory results. The Cox committee died on the vine when its chairman, Eugene Cox, became ill and passed on; the Reece committee, headed by Representative Carroll Reece, became involved in extraneous matters and its report is still awaited.

Special auto taxes including registration fees, tolls and excise taxes on cars, parts, gasoline and oil now produce more than 5 1/4 billion dollars a year says the Automobile Manufacturers Assn.

SIDE GLANCES

"Oh, I think women's intuition is usually right — after my wife met you last night, she said you looked easy to ask for a raise!"

do four things:

1. To secure a full understanding of the ground covered by the Cox committee as disclosed in the hearings it held, the files it maintained, and the report it rendered.

2. To determine the dimensions of the subject to be investigated and studied, and to satisfy myself, (Norman Dodd, Director of Research) as to its contents and its probable ramifications.

3. To define the words: foundation, un-American, subversive, political, and propaganda, in the sense in which they are used in HR 217 and, if possible, dispose of their controversial connotations.

4. To familiarize myself (Norman Dodd) with the expressions of purpose customarily used in Foundation charters."

NATURALLY, in the present atmosphere in Washington, it hopped onto point 3 and bogged down on it because it became involved in hopeless controversy, particularly when a so-called expert was called upon to identify a few sentences from the "Rerum Novarum." I believe, and lacked the common sense to refuse to identify sentences taken out of context without being shown the document from which the sentences were read.

It is an old trick to read something from the Bible, the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution to support some form of radicalism. To use the "Rerum Novarum" to prove that a Pope supported Marxian ideas is nonsense because no encyclical of any Pope of the Roman Catholic Church ever supported Marxism. Norman Dodd gives the following definition for "un-American and subversive:"

"Any action having as its purpose the alteration of either the principle or the form of the United States government by other than constitutional means. (This definition is derived from a study of this subject made by the Brookings Institute . . .)"

THIS DEFINITION is too narrow. Suppose an agent of a foreign government, while accepting and supporting the Constitution, penetrates into an official position, obeys all the rules and regulations, but gives to his activities a twist which harms the United States.

I will cite the Aesopian phrase, "agrarian reformers," invented by Communists to confuse the American people and to twist American policy to be favorable to the Chinese Communists.

Surely this does not involve an unconstitutional act; it is simply a lie, knowingly repeated until it is believed by important persons who can affect public opinion or public policy.

It would seem to be that no worthwhile investigation of the foundations can be made to fit inadequate definitions. If a committee of Congress wants to investigate the foundations, it should first get the facts and then evaluate them from the data, not from a set of definitions.

Heart Disease—The Killer

By BOB CONSIDINE

New York cab drivers are, by and large, the best in the world. But one of them shot through a red light at 40 or 50 m.p.h. the other day. The cab I was in driven by a man named Seymour Stern, stopped on a dime, throwing us both forward. The stop enabled the speeding cab to miss us by inches.

"A bum like that could give you heart trouble," observed Mr. Stern, and when my own ticker slowed down enough, I agreed.

By coincidence, there was waiting for me at the office an impressive brochure on research progress in heart diseases, as reported by the National Heart Institute. The findings are impressive. To wit:

Hypertensive heart disease (high blood pressure) affects 4,500,000 Americans, causes more than 12 per cent of the 775,000 deaths each year from heart troubles. Some 165,000 young men were rejected from military service during World War II because of hypertension. That's the problem.

As for the progress:

A SUBSTANCE from the root of the Indian snakewood plant, Rauwolfia Serpentina, manufactured under various trade names, has been found to be effective in reducing high blood pressure without distressing side effects often caused by other drugs.

Also, rhododendron leaves have yielded a new compound which lowers blood pressure. High blood pressure in elderly victims may be relieved by a new synthetic drug, the creation of Dr. Nicholas S. Assali, University of Cincinnati College of Medicine.

The big killer, arteriosclerotic heart disease, causes more than half of all deaths from heart diseases, causes nine out of 10 heart attacks, and killed more Americans last year than any other single disease (about 350,000).

The progress:
Drs. C. B. Anfinsen, R. K. Brown, Edwin Boyle, and J. H. Bragdon, of the National Heart

Institute, Bethesda, Md., have come up with a chemical "clearing factor" system which converts to normal forms the abnormal giant molecules commonly found in the blood of persons with arteriosclerosis. Their drug, heparin, looks more useful than before.

DR. HENRY LAX, Columbia, has produced an instrument capable of recording arteriosclerosis. Blood thinning drugs of several types are credited with saving the lives of at least 100,000 heart cases.

Rheumatic heart disease is a leading killer and crippler of the young. Dr. Charles H. Rammelkamp, Cleveland, states: "The possibility of heart-damaging rheumatic fever can be prevented by a single shot of a new long-lasting form of penicillin given whenever a child has a strep sore throat." Cortisone, acth, and improved diets have been brought to bear in this field, as well as surgery on the mitral valve.

Surgery has made tremendous strides in combatting congenital heart disease, which kills 9,000 a year. Surgeons can now place fingers inside the heart and push excess tissue together to seal holes in the heart wall, or place plastic plugs therein. Artificial heart machines have "taken over" during operations for as long as an hour and twenty minutes.

As to heart failure, the end result of all the forms, it is being combatted by a newly-developed synthetic resin. "Atomic cock-tails" tend to reduce the speed of abnormal death — bringing heart beats. An "artificial kidney" has been developed for use in this extremity.

WE KNOW a little more about the body's motor every day. Heart spasms during surgery can be prevented by administering Procaine Amide beforehand. Rapid, an intravenous anesthetic, promises to make surgery safer for elderly persons.

Once Over

Fairy Tale For '54

It was the moment when Little Red Riding Hood had begun to notice that grandma looked strange. "What big eyes you have," she exclaimed. "There's room in this world for all kinds of eyes to get on together," said the wolf.

"What big ears you have!" gasped the child. "That is a typically capitalistic remark," snapped the wolf.

"Grannie, what big teeth you have!" exclaimed LRRH.

"Surely you know what they are for," said the wolf, snapping them.

"No, what are they for?" asked the little girl. "CO-EXISTENCE," roared the wolf, leaping from the bed and making after her.

"You're in grandma's nightgown. What are you doing in it?" cried Little Red RH.

"Don't talk like an Anglo-American bloke," roared the wolf. "There is no reason why grandma and I cannot live side by side in it. There is even room for you, if you are not decadent and opposed to peace, better understandings and freedom fro aggression."

"So that's what you call co existence," cried the girl.

"It's very simple. Give up!" said the wolf who had stolen a lap on Little Red Riding Hood on the fifth mile around the room.

Here little Red Riding Hood let out an unearthly scream which brought two woodsmen into the cottage.

"What's going on here?" said the first woodsman.

"It's a truce," explained the wolf.

"This doesn't look like a truce to me," said the woodsman, noting that Little Red Riding Hood was running out of breath and that the wolf seemed ready for the kill.

"You just haven't been studying truces lately," sneered the wolf. "If you watched closely you would know we are having one of the nicest truces ever held anywhere."

"He ate my grandmother," cried the girl, now down to her last gallon of gas.

"How about that?" demanded the second woodsman.

"Nonsense. Even a question such as that makes my constant efforts for better understanding difficult," said the wolf. "Grandma was the aggressor and a foe of world order."

"Do you intend to eat this young woman, too?" demanded the first woodsman.

"I must insist that the query is inadmissible under the procedural rules," snapped the wolf.

"A wolf that would eat a grandmother would eat anybody," declared the second woodsman, raising his axe.

"In this action I am not a regular wolf," argued the wolf. "I came in as a VOLUNTEER."

"Let's sit down and reason this out," suggested both woodsmen. Which was where they were surrounded, excommunicated and accused of being imperialist warmongers.

"This can go on forever," said both woodsmen after a while.

"You can tie to that," said Little Red Riding Hood, who had been reading the papers.

Groucho Marx was married to Eden Hartford, the other day. Presumably if she got to the wedding ceremony first she said, "Groucho sent me." And the secret word was obviously "Yes."

Chou En-Lai and Charlie Chaplin dined together in Switzerland at Charlie's villa, cables say . . . This admits Red China to the league of Chaplins.

Jack Perufroy, America's ambassador to Guatemala had his first Washington job as an elevator operator in the House of Representatives.

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

LONDON With the shade of Sherlock Holmes hovering about somewhere, I'm certain that the great Scotland Yard and the officialdom over at MI 5, British intelligence, will forgive some amateur sleuthing.

I did want to discover if the Communists had infiltrated the English atomic laboratories. The electronic plants and other centers of guarded electrical production, as they have in the U. S.

In other words, are there any secrets from the Communists? There aren't. The Communies have succeeded. The British electronic and aircraft industries are magnificent. They beat back the Nazis once. They can do the same in any contest with Soviet aircraft.

THE COMINTERN obviously was not going to overlook them. The tovarishis started on this project a long way back. They always do. Shortly after the first World War, in fact, Soviet military intelligence believed that the next war would be fought with chemical weapons—gas, mostly.

So the Comintern dispatched word to the British comrades to infiltrate the British chemical unions. This they did in the Twenties. Then along came some bright brain in the Kremlin who decided that the next war would not be fought with mustard gas after all. The next big blow, and the final conflict they sing about so much, would be pushbutton affairs, electronic brain stuff, it said in their crystal ball.

So in the early Thirties, both the American and British Communist union chiefs were ordered to get some other projects and hurry into the electrical field. The British party crowd was told to ease up on the chemical unions here if they didn't have manpower for both assignments.

IT DID NOT TAKE the local tovarishis very long to win control of the highly strategic Electrical Trades Union and also considerable influence in the Amalgamated Engineering Union (which is the British counterpart of the aggressive anti-Communist American Union, the AFL's International Assn. of Machinists—without whose members there can be no war industry, no air fleet, no "fabulous weapons" or guided missiles.)

Measure of the Communists' success in this Operation Infiltration can be seen in a report proudly published by the British Communist party here the other day. The party printed a score card handing down to the faithful the tabulation on the resolutions introduced by Communists and their fellow travelers at recent labor conventions.

The vital Electrical Trades Union, Communist controlled, and the Amalgamated Engineers, heavily infiltrated, were shown to have passed every one of the resolutions introduced by the party and its friends.

Nice crowd to have in your atomic bomb and aircraft fields. Two of these resolutions called for the end of atomic production and increased trade with the Communist bloc.

Today the electrical union has its people in all strategic plants—radar, aircraft, atomic buildings, research, and whatever else goes into the making of modern war.

FURTHERMORE, it has its men concentrated in such vital areas as the Liverpool and Birkenhead Docks, and the Merseyside industrial area.

This union—the ETU—is lead by the toughest Soviets in the business. It has a training school out at Esher, Surrey, where it develops new cadres of leaders. Thus there is little chance of a revolt within the ranks or the splitting away of sections of this union in years to come.

Following the suggestion of a friend in London, I called the union as an American newsman (pressman, they say) and asked if I couldn't sit in on some of the classes. I couldn't. No one could. You can have tea. You can see the building. But you can't sit in. This union is a tightly controlled outfit—all ready to roll.

Not too long ago, the ETU had what might be described as rehearsal for radical action. It ran a series of rolling "guerrilla strikes." A few men were pulled off the job, first in one plant, then another. Each place was paralyzed for a day, and resumed work as the next one went dead.

THE UNION'S central headquarters ordered its members out of

AFTER HANGING SENTENCE—Eugene E. Bryant, 21, left, carries a Bible as he is walked to Jail by Sheriff Harvey Hill at Ellicott City, Md., July 23 after the Korean war veteran heard a circuit court judge sentence him to hang for the slaying of his 17-year-old pregnant sweetheart, Joan Marie Ruzza. Joan was shot to death at Capitol Heights, Md., a Washington suburb, last April 8.

and out of the Harwell Atomic Research Station, where they worked on construction of the most secret facilities; and out of two other two other atomic centers.

They struck a giant refinery at Ellesmere. Important docks where shipping can be paralyzed by the strike of a few men were crippled as well as a score of other plants.

In all, 30,000 disciplined electrical workers hit the bricks on orders from their Communist leaders. The dock strike was called over a hiring grievance. Others walked out for slight pay increases—but whatever the reason, they did take orders to deaden production.

The Ministry of Supply says it has checked on the men in the atomic plants. But there are labor experts here who say this simply can't be done, any more than we can.

Apparently there can be no atomic secrets.

Police Arrest 103 At New York Cock Fight

FULTON, N.Y. (AP)—State troopers arrested 103 persons at a cock fight in a densely wooded area near this central New York city yesterday.

Dr. Robert P. Williams, 52, of Rutland, Vt., suffered a fatal heart attack at the scene. Police said he was among the spectators. Police said 108 birds were confiscated.

U.S. 51st Fighter Wing To Get Rocket Sabres

TOKYO (AP)—The sharpshooting 51st Fighter Interceptor Wing, whose Sabre Jets ran up an impressive record of MIG kills during the Korean War, is being moved to Okinawa from Korea next week to be re-equipped with rocket-firing Sabres.

Gen. Earle Partridge, Far East Air Force commander, announced here today the move will strengthen rather than weaken air defense of South Korea.

Armistice terms prevent United Nations forces from introducing new combat material into Korea. Hence outmoded air groups are withdrawn to areas outside Korea for modernization.

The 51st is the third air wing of the U.S. 5th Air Force to be pulled out for modernization.

Lady Trucker Bests Men In Truck Contest

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP)—A lady trucker who was not an entry drove through the obstacle course and scored more points than any of the men yesterday in the Wisconsin State Truck Driving Contest.

After three men, including one four-time champion were picked as top drivers in a field of 47, someone urged Mrs. Bernice MacDonald, part-owner of a Ripon, Wis., trucking firm, to try out one of the trucks. She piloted the big vehicle through the course and was awarded 330 out of a possible 400 points.

The best effort by the three champions was 328.

U.S. 'Most Photographed Indian' Is Dead At 73

CHEROKEE, N.C. (AP)—Carl Standingdeer, once called "America's Most Photographed Indian," was buried near here yesterday. A cluster of photographs which made Standingdeer famous draped the coffin.

Hundreds from 12 states attended the 73-year-old full-blooded Cherokee's funeral. One of Standingdeer's most famous remarks was:

"Standingdeer hasn't got much money, but Standingdeer has many friends."

Woman Not Impressed At Becoming 102

DENVER (AP)—On her birthday anniversary yesterday, Mrs. Louisa V. Jackson of Denver, a pipe-smoking great-grandmother, declared she wasn't impressed with being 102.

"My mother lived to be 111, and my grandmother 112," she scoffed.

Parity Problem

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—The farmer now has parity. Should the city dweller have parity, too?

This puzzling problem arises as the result of a bill introduced by Rep. J. Arthur Younger, a California Republican, to create a U.S. Department of Urbiculture.

This department would be to city folks what the U.S. Department of Agriculture is to the fellows who follow the furrows on the farms.

Well, plow me under but who wants that? It is all well and good for Rep. Younger to point out that about 75 per cent of the nation's population used to live on the farm but not 75 per cent live in the cities.

Everybody knows the reason these people moved to town was so they wouldn't have to keep on being a problem to the Department of Agriculture.

But having made the transition from farm bloc to city block, why should they have to worry about dealing with agents from a Department of Urbiculture?

Parity is very simple for the farmer. When the government tells him he's got parity, he knows he can trade in his car every other year for a new one. When he doesn't have parity, he pawns the car and gives his overflow crops to his poor relatives.

It is not so easy to arrange parity for a city dweller. He is a rugged individualist, and the only crops he grows are window geraniums and king size ulcers. It is hard to see how a federal Department of Urbiculture can encourage a market for either. Surplus ulcers are even harder to dispose of than surplus butter.

I talked, however, with a number of New Yorkers on the subject of creating a federal government branch devoted to the problems of city living. The reaction was rather limp.

"Would that be good or bad for the Dodgers?" asked a man from Brooklyn.

A young lady inquired: "Never mind urbiculture—what ever that is. How about a federal Department of Matrimony?"

Two other fellows said they weren't interested in the project as they already had jobs in City Hall. Another said, "Well, I hear the Department of Agriculture passes out free seeds to farmers. If the Department of Urbiculture will hand out free bus tickets, I'm not too much against the idea."

On the other hand, a number of disillusioned motorists couldn't see the proposition at all. They were unable to figure how the federal government could solve the parking problem.

One patriotic citizen was indignant at the mere suggestion that a federal bureau would improve New York.

"It has taken us 300 years to get into this mess," he said, "and nobody in Washington can straighten it out."

Then he added grimly: "Congress is a great place to visit—but I sure would hate to live there."

It looks like urbiculture may have a hard row to hoe in this culture.

Bessie Aline Manning Weds Elmer Aebi In Church Rites

Miss Bessie Aline Manning, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Manning of W. Pershing St., and Elmer Harold Aebi, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Aebi of RD 1, Beloit, were married in a colorful mid-summer wedding which occurred Saturday at 2:30 p.m. in the First Presbyterian Church.

The altar where the bride was escorted by her father was arranged in a simple green and white decor with white flowers in altar vases and a background of fern and ivy. Two seven-branch candelabra lighted the chancel setting.

Miss Anna Cook, church organist, played the nuptial melodies, heralding the bridal party with the traditional marches. The couple pledged their vows in a double ring ceremony performed by Rev. A. Laten Carter, church pastor, in the presence of a large company of friends and relatives.

Mrs. Wayne Filler of Salem sang "With This Ring" and "Because." While the bride knelt with her bridegroom at the altar Mrs. Filler sang "The Lord's Prayer."

Wears Waltz Gown
The bride's waltz gown was designed of white Chantilly lace over satin. A Peter Pan collar added beauty to the bodice and the long sleeves were pointed over the hands. Tiers in the skirt added to the bouffant effect.

Lace was used in her Juliet cap and the fingertip veiling was edged with matching lace. A white orchid adorned her Bible, and the single strand of pearls she wore were the gift of the bridegroom. Complementing her costume was the handkerchief she carried, the same that the bridegroom's mother had carried on her wedding day.

Misses Ann, Estelle and Mary Sweeney of Salem attended the bride in summery gowns of tulle over taffeta and big matching picture hats of lace. Ann wore yellow tulle, Estelle, a dusty rose tulle and Mary's gown was in a deep aqua shade. Roses, arranged with ribbons, made up the colonial bouquets carried by the three.

J. Edwin Brudery of Beloit was best man. George E. Manning of Salem and Willard Aebi of Alliance, brothers of the couple, were the ushers.

Both Mrs. Manning and Mrs. Aebi chose dresses of navy blue for their children's wedding. Their corsages contained pink roses.

200 At Reception
The newlyweds received the congratulations of 200 of their friends and relatives from Salem, Canton, East Liverpool, Alliance, Beloit and surrounding towns at the reception in the church social room.

White lace covered the refreshment table from which was served the four-tiered wedding cake. Hostesses were the bridegroom's four sisters, Mrs. Willard Aebi, Mrs. Gene Reed, Mrs. Robert Aebi and Mrs. Dale Hartenstein. Miss Mary Jane Bergman, who is here from Phoenix, Ariz., registered the guests.

The eastern states will be the honeymoon destination of Mr. and Mrs. Aebi and when they return they will reside at RD 1, Beloit. For their trip the bride chose a dress of pink linen with white accessories and the white orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Mr. Aebi, who was graduated from Sebring High School, is associated with his father in farming. Mrs. Aebi graduated from Salem High School and is employed by the Ohio Bell Telephone Co.

The Mannings were hosts at the rehearsal party Friday evening at their home when the couple presented gifts to their attendants. Earring and necklace sets were the bride's gifts to her attendants and the bridegroom gave belt sets to the men. The soloist received scatter pines.

Mrs. Manning, assisted by the bride's grandmother, Mrs. G. G. Manning of W. 10th St. served 25 at the party. Lace covered the buffet table where garden flowers were used as centerpiece and a green and pink color theme was carried out in the appointments.

Mrs. Kenneth Lodge Honored At Outing

The Kenneth Lodge family went picnicking to Manfull's Lake, near Kensington, July 18 and Mrs. Lodge was surprised to find 25 members of the family there to help her celebrate her birthday.

Present were people from Salem, Leetonia and Lisbon. Planning the affair were the honoree's husband, and his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lodge of Lisbon. After opening her gifts Mrs. Lodge was presented a decorated birthday cake inscribed with her name, "Madge."

A picnic dinner, swimming and boating were enjoyed through the afternoon and evening.

Price-Peppel Vows Heard In Youngstown

Miss Jayne Louise Price, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy D. Price of Youngstown, became the bride of Jack Arthur Peppel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Knepper of Leetonia, at a double-ring ceremony on July 3 at the Chapel of Friendly Bells, Youngstown.

The bridal couple went to Cook's Forest, Pa., for a week's honeymoon, following a reception attended by 150 guests at Brown's Hall.

A three-tier wedding cake topped with a bride and groom was cut by the bridegroom. The bridegroom is employed as a clerk at the A & P Co. of East Palestine and his bride was employed with G. C. Murphy Co. of Youngstown.

Officiating at the 7:30 p.m. nuptial was Rev. Homer J. Elford and Mr. Price gave his daughter in marriage. The church was decorated with white roses, glads and baby mums and lighted candles.

A picnic dinner, swimming and boating were enjoyed through the afternoon and evening.

The bride's gown was of white Chantilly lace over satin with a V neck and stand up collar and long lace sleeves and a fingertip veil and carried a white bouquet of glads, roses and carnations. Her attendants, Mrs. John Corbin of Youngstown, matron of honor, was in pale green and the bridesmaids, Mrs. Robert Price and Miss JoAnn Corfee of Youngstown wore orchid colonial gowns of tulle over taffeta. They wore head-dresses and carried bouquets of carnations.

George Bollinger, East Palestine, was best man and Don Somers and Paul Woods of East Palestine were ushers.

Mrs. Price, mother of the bride, wore pink lace with white accessories with a white carnation corsage. Mrs. Knepper, mother of the groom, wore pale blue nylon over taffeta, white accessories and a white carnation corsage.

The bride is a Chaney High School graduate of the class of 1954. The bridegroom attended Leetonia High School and is a Korean veteran.

For traveling the bride wore a yellow flowered summer dress with scoop neckline, cap sleeves and full skirt.

The couple will make their home at 235 East Martin St., East Palestine.

Guests were from Conway, Pa., Arborvale, W. Va., Columbiana, Salem, Leetonia and Youngstown.

Carey's Single In 11th Gives Yankees 4-3 Win Over Indians

Tribe Now Has 1½ Game Lead

Winning Hit Made Off Houtteman

CLEVELAND (AP) — Cleveland's Indians came home for a benefit exhibition today with the St. Louis Cardinals after completing a profitable swing through the East, with a 2-1 break against the Yankees over the weekend.

Since the mid-season intermission for the All-Star game July 13, the traveling Indians won nine games, lost two, and tied two others.

Before the road trip began, the Indians held the league's first place by half a game, and since that time, the Yankees have managed to keep abreast of the Tribe.

When the two teams clashed Friday, the Indians still had the half game edge. They trounced the New Yorkers easily, winning 8-2, and won on Saturday in the 10th inning, 5-4.

Only a single with bases loaded in the 11th inning yesterday kept the Tribe from a clean sweep of the series.

It was hit by Andy Carey and ended the game—tied at 3-3 since the seventh inning—making it a 4-3 Yankee victory.

The Tribe now holds a game-and-a-half advantage over the Yankees in the American League pennant race.

The Bronxites come to Cleveland next weekend for a three-game series; highlight of the Tribe's 14-game home stand.

Each team has scored 74 runs in their season series, split at seven games apiece.

While the Indians are coping with the Boston Red Sox in a trio of games beginning Tuesday, the Yankees will be challenged by the third-place Chicago White Sox, who have a six-game deficit in the league standings.

Whitey Ford held the Indians scoreless yesterday until the sixth inning, as the Yankees hit their way through four Cleveland pitchers.

In the sixth, the Indians got all their runs on a walk by Jim Hegan, a single by Bob Avila, walks by Larry Doby and Al

Rosen, and a sliced single to left by Vic Wertz that made it 3-1. Cleveland's starter, Mike Garcia, pitched scoreless ball for three innings. He walked Mickey Mantle in the fourth, and then Yogi Berra singled and Mantle scored on a sacrifice fly by Irv Noren.

Noren's single started the Yankees rally in the seventh. After Garcia served the single and walks to Carey and Enos Slaughter, Ed Robinson doubled off Ray Narleski to send in two runs and tie the score.

Narleski stayed until the 11th, when he walked Mantle and retired Berra on a fly. Then his roommate, Don Mossi, served a single to Noren and walked Gene Woodling on four pitches. Art Houtteman took the mound and Carey's single sent Mantle across, ending the game.

Salem Polo Team Cops Second, Defeats Chagrin Valley 14-7

Playing sound polo, the Salem riders won their second game of the season Sunday afternoon at the Ellsworth Ave. field, tripping Chagrin Valley 14-7 before a large crowd of local fans.

It marked the first victory in several weeks for Salem, which has now compiled a 2-8 record. Both wins have come at the expense of Chagrin Valley.

Yesterday, the locals completely outdue the visitors for the well-earned victory. Particularly in the first half, play was spirited with both outfits riding hard. Salem led 7-2 at halftime.

Roy Bates and Harry Fricke were the sparkplugs yesterday, scoring five and four goals respectively. Bates turned in one of the finest games seen here this year. He drove the ball well and came up with some beautiful scoring efforts, along with his usual sterling defensive play.

Giants' Lead Whittled To 4; Dodgers Win, Chisox Take 2

By JOE REICHLER
AP Sports Writer

The Cleveland Indians failed to sweep the Yankee series in New York yesterday but they have gained a new-found respect all over the American League.

Back home today after a successful road trip, the league-leading Indians found the home town fans talking pennant for the first time this season. Before, when they returned home in first place, the cynical Cleveland populace would greet them like this:

"Why get steamed up? They never win the big ones. They will before the Yankees. Especially in New York. They'll blow it again down the stretch."

The Indians arrived in New York Friday with a thin half-game edge over the Yankees and left Sunday night a game and a half ahead. That was not exactly winning.

The Yankees nipped the Indians 4-3 in 11 innings yesterday but the Tribe's satisfaction over victories Friday and Saturday was not dimmed.

Casey Stengel, Yankees' manager, muttered:

"This has got to go down to the last weeks. Cleveland is not going to blow up. They got too many good players for that."

The Indians are obviously a much better club than the one that finished second to the Yankees in 1951, 1952 and 1953. As Stengel pointed out: "For the first time in years they've got a strong bench and good second-line pitching to back up the big three."

In the National League, the New York Giants' lead was whittled down to four games yesterday as the second-place Brooklyn Dodgers defeated St. Louis 2-1 while the Milwaukee Braves were walloping the Giants 7-5 for a sweep of the three-game series. The Dodgers meet New York at Ebbets Field tonight.

Chicago's surprising Cubs downed Philadelphia twice, 6-1 and 2-1. Pittsburgh and Cincinnati divided a doubleheader, the Pirates winning the opener 4-2 and the Redlegs taking the nightcap 3-2.

Chicago's third-place White Sox climbed to within six games of the pace-setting Indians in the American, sweeping a twin-bill from Boston 5-2 and 4-2.

Washington protected its fourth-place hold by beating the Detroit Tigers 11-3. Frank (Spec) Shea won his first game of the season. Philadelphia's Athletics buried the Baltimore Orioles deeper in the cellar with 9-4 and 6-4 victories.

Clem Labine, making his second start of the season for Brooklyn, outpitched Harvey Haddix, Cardinal ace. Labine permitted four singles and no runs through the first eight innings but hits by Ray Jablonski and Red Schoendienst and walks to Stan Musial and Joe Cunningham after two were out scored a St. Louis run and filled the bases. Jim Hughes replaced Labine and struck out Rip Repulski on three pitches to save his 17th game for the Dodgers.

Andy Pafko drove in three runs with his 11th homer and a bases-loaded single to spark the Braves to their third straight victory over the Giants. Pafko's single off reliever Ruben Gomez in the seventh drove in the tying and winning runs.

Bob Talbot's ninth-inning single followed Don Fendley's run-producing double in a two-run rally that gave the Cubs a 2-1 victory over the Phillies and a sweep of the double-header.

Pitcher Howie Judson won his own game with a tie-breaking single in the seventh to give the Redlegs a split after Frank Thomas had paced Pittsburgh to a first-game victory with a homer and three singles.

Salem Golf Club officials termed Sunday's big Calcutta tournament one of the most successful tournaments they've staged so far this season.

The tournament was captured by the team of Al White and Dr. M. M. Sandrock with a net score of 60, (18 holes, best ball, handicaps included). Close behind were Mervin Thomas, Jr., and Frank Brian at 61.

Third place was awarded to Walter Deming and Darrell Zimmerman with a 62 and, at 64, Gordon Scott and Leeds Frye captured fourth.

Four teams had 65's for a fifth place tie. They included Bob Schaeffer and George Jones, Bob Marrer and Bill Ferguson, Bill Blount and Kenneth Pinkerton and Jim Wingard and Carl Sekely.

Tied at 67 were Lester Kille and Norm Pedersen Sr., Dick Green and Nolly King and Rudy Schuster and George Perrault.

Honors for low gross for the day went to Walter Deming, Mervin Thomas Jr., Gordon Scott and Walter Hartsock, all with 74's.

The regular weekend winners in match play against par were Gordon Scott and Bill Blount, who tied for first place at three up on par. Bob Schaeffer was next, being one up on par and Dr. Clarence Hartsock was even with par.

The oddity of the long day yesterday occurred when Glenn Arnold shot a hole-in-one on the short number 6 hole, 't he still received credit for only a par 3. The reason: his first drive went out of bounds, costing him two strokes; then he teed the ace.

1953 World Champions to Compete for 1954 Title — Stock Car Races On Same Program Ganfield Fairgrounds, 8:30 Wed., July 28th.

WARD BEAM'S World's Strongest AUTO DAREDEVIL

The largest crowd ever to attend an event is almost certain when the big combined Gold Cup Stock Car Races and the International Auto Daredevil Championship Contest is put on at the Canfield Fairgrounds, 8:30 Wednesday, July 28th (in case of rain-out the following Wednesday night). There will be 40 different events on the 2½ hour program, with three of the continents greatest Auto Thrill Shows competing one against the other in every known kind of an Auto and Motorcycle thriller, plus a complete program of Stock Car races with the leading drivers of the circuit battling for the coveted Gold Cup and a bundle of cash.

Ward Beam's Auto Daredevils have won the Championship Title for 2 consecutive years and are out to try and make it three in a row, however, the 1953 Champions are not yet in the lead this year. Billy Green's Canadian Aces, and Flash Jordons Atomic Hell Drivers are both ahead of the Beam show—and these three teams will give the fans, 33 of the fastest, most daring wrecking, smashing and crashing events ever put on anywhere. It will not only be a battle between 3 Thrill Shows, it will be a battle between popular price automobiles as well, as the 3 shows each use a different make car, one has Fords, the others Chevrolets and Plymouths.

Junior All-Star Tilts Scheduled

Little League Plays Tonight; Pony Tuesday

Two games of extreme interest to Salem Junior Baseball fans are carded for tonight and tomorrow evening.

The Salem Little League All-Stars taste their first action in the Area C playoffs tonight at 6 p.m., pitted against the East Liverpool Americans at Milmar Field in Pleasant Heights.

Tomorrow, the Salem Pony League All-Stars open a best-of-three series with the powerful Warren Pony League All-Stars at Youngstown's Stanbaugh Field.

The winners of the Little League Area A, B, C and D titles will clash at Campbell next week for the regional championship. Salem reached the Campbell finals last year before being eliminated by Youngstown South.

If they win tonight, the Little Leaguers will play again tomorrow night against the winners of the East Liverpool Nationals - East Palestine game at either Palestine or Liverpool. The other teams in this area are Youngstown West, Tri-City, Austintown and Youngstown South, again the team to beat.

IN AREA A, Warren has three teams, Cortland 2, and Niles, 2. Area B shows Ashtabula, Geneva, Conneaut, Painesville, and Austintown. Area D is comprised of Masury, Girard, Canfield, Hubbard and two Youngstown squads.

In the Pony League playoffs, the Salem outfit, winners of three straight tilts last week, will begin a best-of-three series against the tough Warren team tomorrow night at 6 p.m. at Stanbaugh Field in Youngstown. The winners of this series will then advance to Canton for the Regional Playoffs.

Warren apparently is the team to watch, for last season, after dropping Salem in the first game, the Panthers swept all the way into the Pony League World Series at Williamsport, Pa. before losing out.

A large crowd of fans is expected at the Salem games both tonight and tomorrow evening.

Bolt Defeats Sneed, To Oppose Harbert

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.
ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP) — Tammy Bolt, a perfectionist among golf pros who can't understand why the galleries don't admire perfection, figures he made a lot of friends out on the hot stretches of the Keller course.

At least, he was around to meet Chick Harbert, the man who persuaded him not to walk out on the tournament, in one of today's semifinals of the PGA Championship. He wasn't hanging from a tree, as he had predicted.

The other 36-hole semifinal brought together defending champion Walter Burkemo and former Open champion Cary Middlecoff.

Bolt, whose temper operates on a hair trigger, battled anger and Sammy Sneed yesterday and finally won out over both on the 38th hole.

Halfway through the match he threatened to walk out because of what he called unfair treatment by the galleries. Strangely, it was Harbert who persuaded him to continue.

After a couple of club-throwing tantrums and an incident on the 18th green, when a few spectators applauded a missed Bolt putt, Tommy angrily proclaimed that he wouldn't tee off in the afternoon.

"They treat Sneed like a favorite son; if I won they'd probably hang me from the nearest tree," he said.

But before the finish, the fans were cheering Bolt for his dogged persistence in sticking with the favorite and at the end he used up one of his rare smiles and remarked:

"I guess I made some friends out there this afternoon. But wait until you see the headlines tomorrow: they'll say 'Sneed loses on the 38th.'"

"Every pitcher finds out you can't just throw a fast ball by everyone. My control was better than usual today. My slider was my best pitch—I was able to get it over on the outside and inside."

Bill Fischer, Notre Dame line coach, was a teammate of head football coach Terry Brennan for four years, 1945-48. Fischer was captain of the 1948 team.

Harshman Fans 16 In Winning 7th

BOSTON (AP)—Jack Harshman of the Chicago White Sox, who couldn't make the grade with the New York Giants as a first baseman, has added a near-record 16-strikeout performance to his impressive first season as a major league pitcher.

The 6-foot-2 left-hander struck out 16 Boston Red Sox batters in hurling a five-hit, 5-2 victory in the first game of a double-header yesterday. He fell two short of the modern big league strikeout mark of 18 by Cleveland's Bob Feller in 1938.

Before this season, Harshman's only major-league pitching consisted of six innings with the Giants in 1952. He gave up 12 hits and 10 earned runs in those six.

Prior to '52 he had been a first baseman since breaking into professional ball in 1945 with the San Diego Padres of the Pacific Coast League.

Today Harshman, 27-year-old San Diego southpaw with powerful wrist action to snap off his breaking pitches, has appeared in 20 games and has a 7-4 record for the pennant-hopeful White Sox.

"Throwing strikes is the most important thing in pitching, not speed," said Harshman yesterday.

Home Interest To Rival That Shown In Cars

The irresistible appeal of new homes will push housing starts to 2,000,000 a year by 1964, a Minneapolis industrialist recently told delegates to the American Institute of Architects 86th annual convention in Boston.

Paul B. Wishart, president of Minneapolis - Honeywell Regulator Co., predicted that the fascination of new homes would prove stronger than the legendary sales appeal of new automobiles. He viewed it as "the force that will do more than having a new home with all of its advances that there is in having a new car parked in front of an old home," Wishart told the delegates.

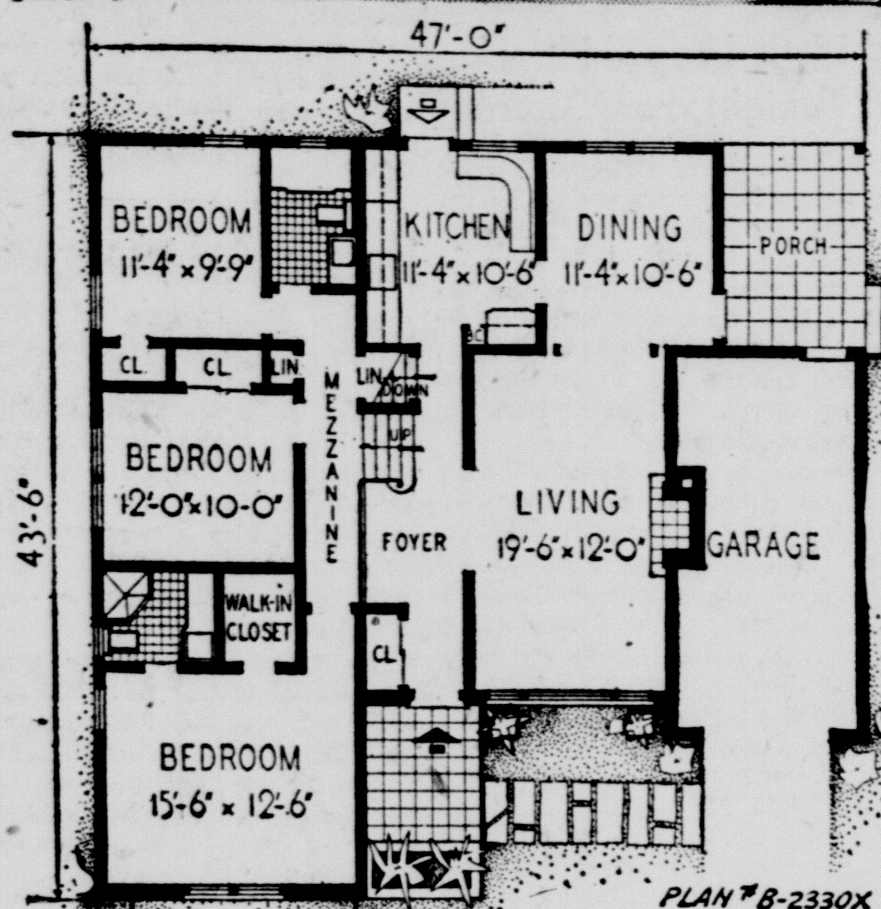

"Americans today want the modern conveniences and they want them as cheaply as they can get them. But they are becoming more and more unhappy with standardization."

"There is an unquenchable desire in people, growing as their ability to pay grows, to have both function and individuality to be proud of, especially when better efficiency goes along with them."

The executive told the architects that they themselves would help to satisfy these desires by providing the elements that for centuries has been missing from the over-all housing industry.

"That element is hard to name," Wishart said. "Some might call it distinction. To others, it is style. To others, it is beauty. To others, it is individuality. But call it what you will, it is the magnetism that persuades the family that can buy to buy — almost against its will."

Wishart declared, however, that

BLENDING THE ATTRactions of both split-level and ranch house styles, this design introduces a mezzanine with open railing. The house has a one-story appearance on the outside, yet bedrooms are removed from the ground floor. This is Plan B-2330X by Alwain Cassin Jr., architect, 145 So. Franklin Ave., Valley Stream, N. Y. The house covers 1,345 square feet without garage and porch.

the millions of Americans who want distinctive homes and the company presidents who want factories that are designed for specific purposes both present serious challenges to civic groups, hospital boards, taxpayers' associations and professional societies.

Builders Predict Trend Toward New Bath Uses

Some builders are predicting that the bathroom of the future will take over the functions of the bedroom, living room and even the playroom.

As an indication of the trend in this direction, they point out that many new baths are already providing built in drawers, vanities and even clothes closets.

In addition, bathrooms are being built large enough to provide lounging and reading space and installation of gymnastic equipment.

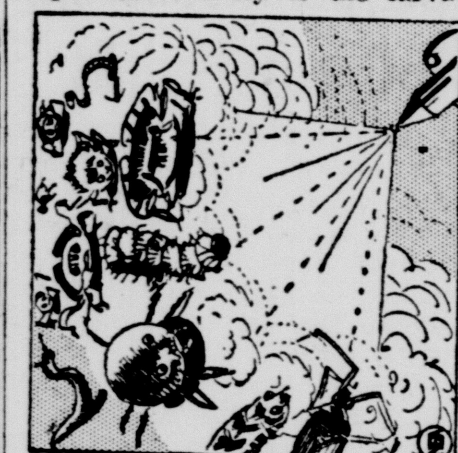

Battle Against Insects Still Endless One

By HENRY PREE

Written for NEA Service

The control of insect pests in the vegetable garden is essential for the success of the crops. Unfortunately since there is no one spray for all insects, the gardener must have on hand two types of insecticides, one a stomach poison, to combat the chewing insects, and the other a contact poison, to fight the sucking insects who stick their tiny bills into the stems and foliage to extract the juice.

Chewing insects are present when leaves are eaten on the margin or holes appear within the leaf. The culprit most likely is the larvae of some bug, incorrectly called a "worm." The true worm is the earthworm and his presence should be encouraged as he helps greatly in the improvement of the soil.

Wireworms, the larvae of the so-called click beetle, feed on the roots of tubers of many plants and vegetables, such as corn, beans, potatoes, strawberries, turnips, etc. Click beetles themselves are not harmful.

Control of wireworms is difficult. In very small gardens they can be destroyed by treating the soil with aldrin or dieldrin but in large gardens it is necessary to bring the wireworms to the surface by frequent deep spading or plowing two or three weeks before planting.

Some vegetable gardeners recommend planting the corn here and there to attract the worms and thus keep them away from other crops.

The moment insect damage is observed, spray or dust should be applied. An outbreak of insects in one part of the garden may become an epidemic. Chewing insects, according to the kind, can be controlled with chlordane, malathion, rotenone, pyrethrum and DDT.

Sucking insects can be controlled by use of lindane and nicotine sulfate.

Slugs, snails, cutworms, ground beetles are killed by poison bait, prepared in both meal and pellet forms. These are scattered throughout the garden just before seed is sown and every 10 days after the plants come up as long as these pests are troublesome.

Aphids, which apparently attack all crops, are controlled best with a nicotine sulfate, soapy water spray or lindane.

Mexican bean beetle, cabbage worm, currant worm, cucumber beetle, flea beetles and the asparagus beetle are killed if you spray or dust regularly with one of the recommended chemicals.

Malathion and DDT are recommended in the early season — that is before the beans form, the cabbage becomes much of a head, etc. From there on switch to rotenone.

Bean leafhoppers bow to DDT dust with a sulfur carrier. Tests indicate that DDT plus Bordeaux mixture or ferriate, results in better potato yields than when the Bordeaux used alone. DDT will make short work of the potato leafhoppers.

Squash bugs should be hand-picked and trapped under small pieces of board laid on the soil around the plants. Collect and trap bugs each morning. Dusting with methoxychlor may be helpful. The ugly and big green tomato worm ignores poisonous sprays and must be handpicked and destroyed.

To kill root lice, work chlordane into the soil. Spraying or dusting should be done thoroughly, making sure that the upper and under sides of leaves and stems especially near the ground are covered. Remember that the insecticides must come in direct contact with the sucking insects, like aphids and red spider, to do any good.

Outdoor Fireplace Need Not Be Elaborate Setup

A backyard fireplace doesn't have to be elaborate in order to enjoy the thrill of outdoor cooking and eating.

A few stones in a shallow pit, or an inexpensive portable grill can make steaks and hamburgers taste plenty good — especially when they're eaten in your own private outdoor "dining room."

Hard Water Dulls Hair, Says Trade Foundation

Beauty parlor operators know that a soft lustrous-looking coiffure cannot be achieved after a hard water shampoo. Soft water, they have found, is an invaluable aid in their work.

Likewise, the woman who shampoos her hair at home with hard water is bound to be dissatisfied with results every time, according to the Water Conditioning Foundation.

The reason for this is that soap in a shampooing compound reacts with hard water to form a sticky, clinging scum which coats each hair. Since it is virtually impossible to rinse this scum away, the hair appears dry, dull-looking and brittle.

New Homes Among 17 Building Permits Issued During July

Seventeen building permits were issued here by the mayor's office during the first three weeks of July. Of the estimated $98,525 that the permits cover, $90,000 is destined for the building of seven new homes.

Two permits were issued for the building of two new garages with a combined estimated valuation of $2,100 while the remaining eight permits covering $6,425 for repairs, remodeling and additions.

Five of the permits issued for new homes went to Franklin Homes, Inc. who plan to erect dwellings at 1747, 1750, 1765, 1766, and 1782 Southeast Blvd. The estimated cost of each structure is $13,000. The same company obtained five permits in June for homes on the same street.

Sam Rea Jr. was given a permit to build a $15,000 brick ranch-style home at 1260 Jennings Ave. and Earl and Mary Sulea were granted a permit for a frame ranch-style dwelling to be built at 534 W. 6th St. at an estimated cost of $10,000.

A permit to build a concrete block two-car garage at an estimated cost of $1450 was issued to William J. Armstrong, 291 W. State St. and another permit for a garage of frame construction with an estimated cost of $650 to be built at 525 Steward St. was issued to Fred Alesi.

Permits for repairs, alterations and additions were issued to:

James S. Seederly, to repair front at 542 S. Broadway, $1,000; Hazel Betts, remodel kitchen and bath, $1,000; Mike Babich, repair garage at 664 South Union Avenue, $100; George and Jenny Sutherlin, for remodeling kitchen at 193 Park Ave., $350; Clifford and Virginia Mounts, addition to house at 1901 N. Ellsworth Ave., $2,000; Michael Post, remodel garage at 1254 E. 3rd St., $175; and Joseph and Anne Galchick, reside building at 725 W. Pershing St., $1,000.

Heating Unit Makers Enter Cooling Business

Many manufacturers, whose products in the past have been confined to boilers and radiators, are now going into the summer cooling field in order to be in a position to offer customers year-round service in regulating home temperatures.

Several firms are offering combination units resembling convectors which contain both heating and cooling coils. The same piping system connects the units with the boiler for heating and with a water chiller for summer use.

Other firms are adding a line of window-type coolers to their already established line of heating units, according to the Plumbing and Heating Industries Bureau.

Vanity Lavatory Serves As Dresser Substitute

Vanity lavatories are replacing the mirrored dresser in some modern homes.

Such lavatories are said to offer all the conveniences of the dresser—counter area, drawer space, and a wide expanse of mirror—plus the added advantage of a modern lavatory with hot and cold water.

A beautiful addition to the bedrooms of any home, such lavatories provide a place where women can freshen up, wash their hair and put on makeup without tying up the bathroom.

Warn Amateurs On Heat Plant Change

Most "do-it-yourself" homeowners would like more room in their homes and the majority figure that they are capable of handling the necessary remodeling problems themselves.

That's what a national survey of moderate - cost homes indicates, according to the Gas Appliance Manufacturers Assn., which puts extra bathrooms, finished basements or attic living quarters at the top of the list of most-wanted improvements.

But, GAMA warns, although carpentry, painting, flooring, wiring and other necessary tasks usually can be sufficiently well-mastered to do an adequate job, the average amateur usually is not qualified to handle the heating problems presented by new living space.

Ralph E. Solomon, GAMA heating expert, reports that too many homeowners expect too much from their heating system when they add new rooms. In most cases the heating system was designed to supply warmth only to the original living space and any attempt to extend it by adding new piping or ductwork results in inadequate service throughout.

Solomon suggests that owners in the process of remodeling their homes consult heating specialists in their communities.

Fix-It Forum

Q — Can you tell me what to use for crack filler on wooden floors? Commercial filler previously used has come out in many places.

A — A mixture of sawdust and wood glue makes a filler which is preferable to some commercial fillers. But before using any type of filler it is most important to clean dirt and grease out of the cracks; otherwise, filler will not adhere to the wood. Pack in mixture until it projects above floor surface. When dry, chisel and sand filler level. Instead of filler, glue a thin strip of wood into very wide cracks.

John C. Kerns

John C. Kerns, 47, was found dead Saturday at 5 p.m. at his rooming house on W. State St. Death was caused by a heart ailment.

Born in Winona May 21, 1907, he was the son of Orin H. Kerns and the late Minerva Votaw Kerns.

He had lived in Salem most of his life. He was a mason and cement finisher and at one time he worked for the city.

Besides his father, he is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Russell Zepernick of Sebring and Mrs. William Hearn of Cleveland; two grandchildren; and one sister, Mrs. Oscar McCammon of Salem.

Services will be Tuesday at 2 p.m. at the Arbaugh - Pearce Funeral Home with Rev. Harold Winn officiating. Burial will be in Woodside Cemetery.

Friends may call this evening at the funeral home.

Mrs. Leonard Hively

COLUMBIANA — Mrs. Elizabeth D. Hively, 47, of 122 S. Middle St., died Sunday at 1:30 a.m. in Salem City Hospital.

Born March 26, 1907, in Berlin, Pa., she was the daughter of the late L. Fred and Mary B. McLuckie Dively.

A graduate of Greenford High School, she attended Canfield Normal School and was graduated from Kent State University. She taught school in Greenford until she came here in 1935.

A member of Jerusalem Lutheran Church, she was secretary of the Women's Missionary Society and a member of Daughters of the King.

She was married June 18, 1935, to Leonard B. Hively, who survives with two daughters, Phyllis Joann and Margaret Louise. Other survivors include two brothers, Dr. Owen

A. Dively of Macomb, Ill. and Robert W. Dively of North Canton; and a sister, Miss Geneva Dively of San Antonio, Texas.

Services will be Wednesday at 2 p.m. at the Eells-Leggett Funeral Home with the Rev. Harold Winn of the First Friends Church in Salem in charge. Burial will be in Lisbon Cemetery.

Friends may call at the Fry Funeral Home Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Lou McGee

LISBON — Mrs. Kate McGee, 77, of 434 E. Chestnut St., died this morning at 4:15 at the Henthorne-Chronic Hospital on E. Lincoln Way after a lingering illness.

Born in East Palestine Nov. 1, 1876, she was the daughter of William and Sally Anne Hall Allcorn. She was the last of nine Allcorn children.

A member of the St. Jacobs Evangelical and Reformed Church, she married Lou McGee June 11, 1896. He died May 6, 1933.

Survivors are two daughters, Mrs. Grace Metz and Miss Clara McGee, and a son, Frank McGee, all at home.

Services will be held at the Eells-Leggett Funeral Home Wednesday at 3:30 p.m. with Rev. Paul T. Gerrard of the Lisbon Presbyterian Church officiating. Burial will be in Lisbon Cemetery. Friends may call Tuesday from 7 to 9 p.m. at the home.

Frank B. Speaker

LISBON — Frank Benton Speaker, 76, of RD 5, Lisbon, a retired farmer, died Sunday at 6:10 p.m. in the Salem Central Clinic after a year's illness.

Born in Montpelier, O., Nov. 16, 1877, he was the son of Frank and Lucinda Steltz Speaker. He moved here about 35 years ago and retired from farming three years ago. He was a member of St. Jacobs Evangelical and Reformed Church.

In 1906, he married Myrtle Ripple at Alliance. She survives at the home.

Lisbon Council Maps Sewage Plant Project

LISBON — An engineering representative from Sullison and Associates of Columbus will advise Council tonight on whether to accept bids offered for building a sewage disposal plant or to advertise for new bids.

Combined low bids of $378,089 ($23,089 above the engineer's estimate) were offered by the George Patterson Co. of Wellsville, and the Robert Schaeffer Co. of Cleveland July 15.

The Columbus engineers, after reviewing the bids, informed Mayor Wilbur Warren last week that the plant probably could not be built for less than $355,000.

Mile Branch Grange Marks Youth Night

Dale Kitzmiller served as temporary master and Betty Denny as chaplain at the Friday evening of Mile Branch grange when Youth Night was observed. Glen Dunlap discussed school legislation.

Mrs. Ethel Borton was elected a delegate to the state grange convention in October and Foster Hall, an alternate. A collection was taken for the 4-H Club livestock building on the Columbiana Fairgrounds at Lisbon.

The next regular youth meeting is planned for Aug. 3 to be followed by a wiener roast. The group will sponsor a dance Aug. 6 with Nezhbeth's orchestra playing the program. The prince and princess of the grange will be crowned at the dance which is open to the public.

Nomination of officers will take place at the second meeting in August and officers will be elected at the first meeting in September.

Mrs. Robert Kibler was in charge of the lecture hour when Elvin and Beverly Barnett entertained with a piano duet. Quartet selections were presented by Dorothy and Wayne Harlan, Robert Christian and Cloteel Stelt. Jean Kitzmiller entertained with a trumpet solo.

"How Can We Improve Our School" was the topic of a panel discussion and taking part were Leon Force, Dale Kitzmiller, Betty Denny, Virginia Rill and Norman Barnett. The attendance prize went to Elizabeth Hoffman.

Refreshments were served and the next meeting was planned for Friday, Aug. 13.

ing water at the base of the flame. In the demonstrations Sunday, 18 men were used to a test, with three trucks in a relay from the fire hydrant 760 feet from the house.

Results Analyzed

Results of several of the tests were as follows:

Test No. 1, upstairs bedroom, Fire burned 2 minutes, 20 seconds, reaching a temperature of 1250 degrees. Temperature was reduced to 150 degrees permitting the men to enter and extinguish the blaze in 1 minute, 8 seconds. Mop up for deep seated fires was 4 minutes.

Test No. 2, kitchen: Burned 1 minute, reaching 1300 degrees, reduced to 200 degrees. Blaze extinguished in 2 minutes.

Test No. 3, kitchen: Burned 5 minutes, 30 seconds reaching 1500 degrees, reduced to 600 degrees. Blaze extinguished in 32 seconds fog nozzle application. Mop up, 10 minutes.

Test No. 4, downstairs north: Burned 3 minutes reaching 1150 degrees, reduced to 150 degrees. Blaze extinguished in 1 minute, 8 seconds. Mop up 4 minutes.

The fire marshal pointed out the importance of keeping doors and windows closed when a fire breaks out. In one experiment Sunday, temperature dropped from 900 to 400 degrees by closing off draft.

Motor Club To Close At Noon Saturdays

Effective this week, the Columbiana County Motor Club office at 740 E. State St. will be open all day Wednesday, instead of Saturday.

Manager A. P. Morris said the change was made to conform to auto club hours throughout the state.

The office will now be open all day Wednesday, but closed Saturday afternoon. Heretofore, the office was closed Wednesday afternoons.

spotted the airliner "and fighting took place."

"Upon receiving this report, the government of the People's Republic of China undertook an investigation through various channels which revealed that the transport involved was actually a British-owned transport aircraft whose sinking (was) by our patrol aircraft as an aircraft of the Kuomintang (Chinese Nationalist) gang on a mission to raid our military base at Port Yulin," Peiping's note said.

The rescue of survivors was carried out by a United States SA16 Albatross amphibious plane under the very noses of the Reds. It flew from Clark Field, near Manila. The pilot, Capt. Jack I. Woodward, said the Reds seemed intent on killing all aboard the British plane.

"It seemed to me they were trying to make darn sure there would be no survivors," he said in an interview after he returned to Clark Field.

The rescuers set their plane down in the protection of a small island about 2 1/2 miles from where the survivors were huddled on a small raft. Seas were running high. The Albatross tossed lines to the people on the raft.

Officials believe it will not adversely affect the long-range, three-year program for military assistance to Korea, Japan, Formosa and the Philippines.

At the Pentagon, it was said that no change in money allocations is contemplated under the military assistance program for this fiscal year.

Officials said a sudden cutback now might alarm nations which the United States hopes to bring into the Southeast Asia alliance. And the fluid situation throughout the area would make it militarily unwise.

Beyond this there was the recent news conference discussion by Wilson which indicated the program for cutbacks in military strength was being reviewed.

2 Lisbon Motorists Fined By Warren

LISBON — Two Lisbon motorists were fined a total of $20 and costs over the weekend at hearings before Mayor Wilbur Warren and another traffic violator forfeited a $15 bond.

Kathryn Arsuffi of W. Washington St. was fined $10 for passing at an intersection on Route 30 and Thomas L. Jackson of RD 5 was fined $10 for speeding.

William D. Bell of Bucyrus forfeited the bond on a speeding charge.
